Head-to-head:

This is the first of ten meetings between the Wolf Pack and the Islanders during the 2024-25 season. The sides will meet once more in October, tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 p.m. at Total Mortgage Arena. The rivalry shifts back to the XL Center for the third meeting of the season on Sunday, Nov. 24, at 4:00 p.m. A season ago, the Wolf Pack won the season series from the Islanders thanks to a record of 7-2-0-1. Out of 20 available points, the Wolf Pack claimed 15. The road team won six of the ten matchups, with the Islanders winning twice in the Connecticut capital and the Wolf Pack winning four of their five visits to Bridgeport. The Islanders did claim the final two meetings, however. The Isles scored a 3-2 shootout decision on March 9 at Total Mortgage Arena, snapping a seven-game Wolf Pack winning streak in the building. Then, in the final meeting on April 3, the Islanders cruised to a 4-1 victory at the XL Center.

The defeat marked the third straight home loss for the Islanders to open the season. Tonight is the club's first road contest of the year.
